AATCC REVIEW WINS 2010 TABBIE AWARD!

RESEARCH TRIANGLE PARK, N.C., USA, Thursday, July 15, 2010—AATCC Review, the journal of the AATCC, has won an award for one of Managing Editor Maria Thiry's feature articles.

The Trade, Association and Business Publications International (TABPI) awards for publication excellence are called "Tabbies." AATCC was honored with a Tabbie in the Feature Article category for an in-depth feature article on recycled textile fibers. "Everything Old is New Again" was published in the March 2009 issue of AATCC Review. The Tabbie awards committee considered almost 500 editorial and design entries from around the globe. Other winners in the same category included Chemist + Druggist, Computerworld, Automotive News, and the Institution of Engineering and Technology's Engineering & Technology.

This was AATCC Review's first Tabbie, but not the first time it has garnered an award. Since publication of AATCC Review began in 2001, the journal has received 12 awards for excellence. Thiry earned six of those awards for her feature articles on textiles and the textile industry.
