AATCC Review was rated as the #1 AATCC member benefit according to the latest AATCC membership survey.

AATCC introduces evolving technology by commissioning articles with unique coverage to fulfill AATCC member interests, including sustainability.

Reader testimonials from 2018 AdImpact™ Study, conducted by Signet Research, Inc. using ads from the May/June 2018 issue of AATCC Review, say:

- "The articles keep me informed of the latest developments. They are well written, factual and accurate."
- "I have used articles from the AATCC Review to inform others at my job on solutions to problems, ideas, or anything else."
- "AATCC Review is important for me to stay current in my industry."

AATCC Review won both Apex and Tabbie Awards in 2018 for its September/October 2017 feature article “Microfiber Shedding: Hidden Environmental Impact” by Kilara Le.

Our Print Publication, AATCC Review

Who We Are: AATCC Review is the official publication of AATCC, publishing innovative research and probing features on all facets of fibers, textiles, and apparel, six times a year.

Who We Reach: AATCC is truly a global network of textile professionals, in more than 50 countries. Members are industry leaders in product design, testing, manufacturing, research and product development, and distribution. Each month, AATCC invests in membership development—attracting new members from Asia, China, and around the world—delivering new readers to the advertisers appearing in the multi-award-winning AATCC Review.

AATCC speaks to the professionals you want to reach!

- 100% requested circulation—no purchased mailing lists, samplings, or forced free trials
- 97% subscription distribution
- Copies available at select trade shows and industry events
- All subscriber details verified annually
- Circulation statistics confirmed and published annually for postal audit

What We Do: AATCC has truly embraced the globalization of the textile industry.

- Your ad message is distributed to a 100% requested readership—a benchmark few other publishers achieve
- Feature articles achieve critical acclaim, winning awards year after year to ensure the magazine content has value to the reader
- Advertisers know their message will be seen

"AATCC Review keeps me updated with the latest in research, standards and product development in my field of work."

Reducing the Risk of Uncomfortable Protective Wear

Since Europe (EU) is facing a lack of specialized equipment in almost every working area, protective clothing has become an increasingly important factor in many ways. Not only has it evolved into a competing factor when it comes to recruiting personnel but is being widely accepted as an indispensable medium to keeping people healthy in dangerous working conditions.
