“Circle Black: A Sustainable Dyeing System Using Diresul Black RDT liq to Dye Knit Fabrics, Recycling the Dyebath, Without Salt.”

Bryan Dill, Archroma

The knitwear market for black articles is always in high demand. Knit fabric is usually dyed on jet overflow machines by exhaust application. Dye classes traditionally used in this process are fiber reactive and direct dyes. The Circle Black system is an alternative technology with sustainable advantages compared to traditional processes.